CODE OF ETHICS BYLAW

THE COUNCIL FOR THE RURAL MUNICIPALITY OF MARYFIELD NO. 91
IN THE PROVINCE OF SASKATCHEWAN ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

PART I CODE OF ETHICS

Code of Ethics for Members of Council

Preamble

As members of council, we recognize that our actions have an impact on the lives of all residents and property owners in the community. Fulfilling our obligations and discharging our duties responsibly requires a commitment to the highest ethical standards.

The quality of the public administration and governance of the R.M. of Maryfield No. 91, as well as its reputation and integrity, depends on our conduct as elected officials.

Purpose and Interpretation

The purpose of this code is to outline basic ethical standards and values for members of council. It is to be used to guide members of council respecting what their obligations are when fulfilling their duties and responsibilities as elected officials.

This code is to be interpreted in accordance with the legislation applicable to the municipality, the common law and the policies and bylaws of the municipality.

Neither the law nor this code is to be interpreted as exhaustive, and there will be occasions on which a council will find it necessary to adopt additional rules of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance the public confidence and trust in local government.

It is the responsibility of each member of council to uphold the standards and values set out in this code.

Standards and Values

a. Honesty

Members of council shall be truthful and open in their roles as council members and as members of the communities they serve.

b. Objectivity

Members of council shall make decisions carefully, fairly and impartially.

c. Respect

Members of council shall treat every person, including other members of council, municipal employees and the public, with dignity, understanding and respect.

Members of council shall not engage in discrimination, bullying or harassment in their roles as members of council. They shall not use derogatory language towards others, shall respect the rights of other people and groups, shall treat people with courtesy and shall recognize the importance of the different roles others play in local government decision making.

Members will do everything possible to maintain the integrity, confidence and dignity of the office of a rural municipal council member.

Members will listen to what other council members, individuals or groups may have to say before making final decisions.

Members will endeavor to avoid hostility and bitterness, to observe proper decorum and behaviour, to encourage full and open discussions in all matters and not to withhold or conceal from their fellow council members any information or matter in which they should be concerned.

Members will make no disparaging remarks, in or out of a council meeting, about other members of the council or their opinions, but they reserve the right to make honest and respectful criticism.

Members will abide by majority decisions of the council once they are made.

d. Transparency and Accountability

Members of council shall endeavour to conduct and convey council business and all their duties in an open and transparent manner, other than those discussions that are authorized to be dealt with in a confidential manner in closed session, so that stakeholders can view the process and rationale used to reach decisions and the reasons for taking certain actions.

Members of council are responsible for the decisions that they make. This responsibility includes acts of commission and acts of omission.

Members will not use the municipality of any municipal program for their own personal advantage or for the advantage of their friends.

Members will recognize that the expenditure of municipal funds is a public trust, and they will endeavor to see that all such funds shall be expended efficiently, economically and in the best interest of the municipality.

e. Confidentiality

Members of council shall refrain from disclosing or releasing any confidential information acquired by virtue of their office except when required by law or authorized by council to do so. Members shall not take advantage of or obtain private benefit from information that is obtained in the course of or as a result of their official duties or position and that is not in the public domain. This includes complying with The Local Authority Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act in their capacity as members of council of a local authority.

f. Leadership and the Public Interest

Members of council shall serve their constituents in a conscientious and diligent manner and act in the best interests of the municipality. A member shall strive, by focussing on issues important to the community and demonstrating leadership, to build and inspire the public's trust and confidence in local government.

Members of council are expected to perform their duties in a manner that will bear close public scrutiny and shall not provide the potential or opportunity for personal benefit, wrongdoing or unethical conduct.

Members of council are expected to be motivated primarily by an earnest desire to serve their municipality and the people of the community to the best of their ability.

Members will endeavor to attend all council meetings.

Members will consider it unethical to pursue any procedure calculated to embarrass a fellow member of the council, a member of the municipal staff or other local government body.

Members will recognize that authority rests within the council in legal session, and not with individual members of the council.

Members will endeavour to keep informed on all local, provincial and national municipal developments of significance.

Members will earnestly try to interpret the peoples' needs of the entire municipality and do their best to implement action to meet those needs, keeping in mind budget limitations of the municipality.

g. Responsibility

Members of council shall act responsibly and in accordance with the Acts of the Parliament of Canada and the Legislature of Saskatchewan, including The Municipalities Act.

This duty includes disclosing actual or potential conflicts of interest, either financial or otherwise relating to their responsibilities as members of council, following policies and procedures of the municipality, and exercising all conferred powers strictly for the purpose for which the powers have been conferred. Every member of council is individually responsible for preventing potential and actual conflicts of interest.

Contravention during a Council Meeting

2. If council is of the opinion that a member has violated the code of ethics during a council meeting, council may require the member to remove themselves for the remainder of the council meeting. Council may apply additional penalties based on the severity of the contravention.
